

Please do not permit cell phone usage on aircraft. It would be absolutely disgusting to be locked up in a plane for a number of hours listening to the inane chatter that would surely go on. It's bad enough I got put up with these whimpering dogs in the rest of my public life. If you permit this, I'll stop flying, electing instead to drive everywhere, just to get some peace and quiet.